December 2016

HOUR
OF
CODE

Participate in the Hour of Code/Computer Science Week

Sign up in the library for a 1/2 block Dec. 5 – 8 to participate in the Hour of Code.

Once students are in the library, they will be able to choose a coding activity on <https://code.org/learn>

They will work independently to complete the task.

Computer science students & library staff are available to assist anyone who may get stuck or need help getting started.

"It is December, and nobody asked if I was ready."—Sarah Kay

Raffle prizes (Steam card and make) for students who participate in the library.

Google Questions?

I am available to work with you one-on-one during your prep, or before or after school by appointment, if you would like to work with Drive, gmail, calendar, docs, sheets, slides, forms, etc. Or if you have specific questions, I would be happy to help. If I can't help, I will work hard to find the answer for you.

Book Club Book

December 8th we will be discussing Endangered by Eliot Schrefer comes the compelling tale of a girl who must save a group of bonobos -- and herself -- from a violent coup.
