January 2017

January the month of Change and Self-Improvement

Google Questions?

I am available to work with you one-on-one during your prep, or before or after school by appointment, if you would like to work with Drive (organize it), gmail (organize it), calendar (sync with devices), docs, sheets, slides, forms, etc. Or if you have specific questions, I would be happy to help. If I can't help, I will work hard to find the answer for you.

"I blink January's lashes and gush down December's cheeks" — Sanobar Khan, (poet) Turquoise Silence

Book Club Book

Viewpoints in Context This cross-curricular research tool supports science, social studies, current events, and language arts classes. It's informed, differing views present each side of an issue and help students develop information literacy, critical thinking skills, and the confidence to draw their own valid conclusions. Citations are provided.

January 19th we will be discussing The Running Dream by Wendelin Van Draanen.

When Jessica is told she'll never run again, she puts herself back together—and learns to dream bigger than ever before. The acclaimed author of Flipped delivers a powerful and healing story.

LCD Projector in Room 186

The 186 computer lab now has a mounted projector for teachers to use in that room. The library has a new projector as well that is much brighter than the previous one.

GOOGLE Tour Builder

<https://tourbuilder.withgoogle.com/>

Tour Builder is a new way to show people the places you've visited and the experiences you had along the way using Google Earth. It lets you pick the locations right on the map, add in photos, text, and video, and then share your creation. Pam Moreau @ MMS is having a workshop on Wed. Jan. 11 @ 2:30 PM
